Information provided

“If a project like Justice Connect’s LALC Project was around 25 years ago, we wouldn’t be in this situation right now. We’re a one-person operation that is not funded or equipped to deal with such a complex issue.”

“The lawyers listened very carefully, helped me develop the skills to talk to the other side and help myself. We’re isolated from the mainstream and we don’t get that sort of service and support.”
